

Bayard Rustin was a passionate activist who advocated for causes like civil rights, nonviolence and gay rights. As a brilliant strategist, he also organized many important boycotts and marches in the civil rights movement. 26 years after his death, the United States honored Rustin with the Presidential Medal of Freedom.

HALLMARK

IDEAS + INSPIRATION